Members of the Moffett, Martin and Young Families:

Welcome to Meridian. We are indeed pleased to have you here as you renew family ties and have the opportunity to enjoy our community.

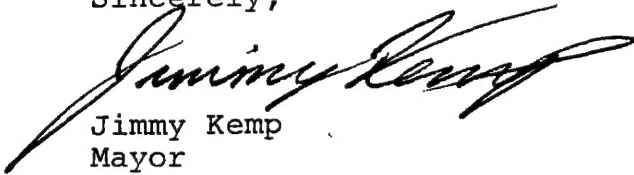

Meridian has something to offer everyone. You will enjoy visiting Highland Park, the site of the Jimmie Rodgers Memorial Museum and our turn of the century Carousel. The Meridian Museum of Art, the magnificent Temple Theatre, beautiful antebellum Merrehope, Dunn's Falls Park, Lake Okatibbee as well as other areas of interest will also provide for an exciting stay in our community.

We are also very pleased to be the home of the Meridian Naval Air station. Further, we proudly boast of being the hometown of Susan Akin, Miss America of 1986.

Meridian is an outstanding place to live or visit!

When we can be of help, an invitation is always open for you to visit us at City Hall.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Kemp
Mayor

Meridian, MS 39305

Dear Mrs. Holloway:

The Greater Meridian Chamber of Commerce extends a cordial welcome to you and members of the Moffett, Martin, Young Reunion. You are to be commended for bringing such a large delegation of people to Meridian. We are proud of our community, and citizens like you give us reason to be.

If for any reason your group needs assistance from the Chamber during their stay, please call on our staff.

Yours truly,

Tom Maynor
President

A WELCOME AND CONGRATULATIONS

Surely, everyone attending this reunion will discover his and her roots and be proud of their heritage. Hopefully, you will make a record of all of your deliberations and photograph everyone - elect an historian and continue to have annual meetings, reporting what achievements all of you have made in the past 12 months: who got married, who had offsprings and who expired.

List all accomplishments and plan to meet here in Meridian.

We grant to you city amenities and have a great time.

Sincerely,

OBIE CLARK, President
July 7, 1987

To: The Moffett, Martin, and Young families:

On behalf of the officers and members of the Meridian Branch of the NAACP, I take pleasure in welcoming you to the city of Meridian and congratulate you on the occasion of your family reunion.

The NAACP recognizes that the strength and survival of a community, state, or nation starts with the family unit. Certainly, the stability and strength of your respective families contribute to the survival of the community and hence, the nation.

Again, it is our sincere hope that as the members of your families renew acquaintances, and recall the good times of childhood, you will strengthen the bond of kinship and friendship thereby perpetuating the things you all cherish most: love and devotion.

Best wishes for a great time.

Sincerely,

MOFFETT, MARTIN, YOUNG FAMILY HISTORY

Alen Moffett, Sr., the eldest son of Lydia Moffett was born in the Clarke County, Quitman area, of African-Indian and Caucasian descendants. He was brought to Lauderdale County, Meridian area, as a slave, with his family. His mother, Lydia, five sisters; Martha, Dinah, Betsy, Della and Harriet, along with one brother, Edd Moffett. Alen was given his freedom at the age of seventeen. He was married to a woman named Quintilla Hill in 1870. Alice, the oldest daughter of Jerry and Adeline Martin, lived with Quintilla and Alen. Adeline's parents were of Caucasian descent, while Jerry's (Pappy) mother was African and his father was Indian. Pappy and Mother Adeline were of the Methodist religion and were among the founders of the Tabernacle Methodist Church where they were members. The Tabernacle United Methodist Church as we know it today remains in the same location.

Quintilla died after a three year marriage to Alen Moffett. He was instructed to wait until the young Alice was old enough to be married, then he could marry her. He waited. This marriage was performed on December 11, 1873, by Rev. Moses Pringle. Alen Moffett and Jerry Martin, Alice's father signed bond. Jerry Martin (Pappy) signed his name with an "X". Alen was able to sign his name.

The record is found in marriage book A-1, page 436, Lauderdale County Courthouse Annex, 2nd Floor, Meridian, MS. To this union of Alen and Alice Moffett was born thirteen children. Nine lived to maturity. All now are deceased.

Alen Moffett was a farmer. He made molasses for the East Central MS and West Alabama area. He skillfully wove white oak baskets, bottomed chairs, and made fish traps. He selected small white oak trees, trimmed, split and shaved them until the strips were smooth and pliable. This art is still crafted by some Indian tribes.

Alen Moffett (Grandpapa) possessed a great sense of humor and was loved and admired by many. He departed this life May 1928. His remains rest on the hill in the Tabernacle Cemetery.

Alice Martin was the oldest daughter of Jerry and Adeline Martin, she had three brothers, George, Emmanuel, and Jerry, and four younger sisters, Mariah, Charlotte, Louisa and Mary.

Alice Martin Moffett was a wife, mother, and homemaker. Cooking, canning, quilting and rearing her beautiful family was a full time occupation.

Jerry Martin has one brother, Edd, and five sisters Martha, Dinah, Betsy, Della, and Harriet.

Willie (Buddy) Moffett, the oldest son, married Harriet Reed, the daughter of Robb Reed and wife. They had four children; Willie Mae, Floreatha, Susie Bea, and one son, (Son). Willie had a second family. I do not know if there are any survivors.

Luvenia (Lula, Sissie), the oldest daughter, married Jim Young, the son of Jemina (Mur) and Pascal Young. They were the parents of six children who live to maturity. Daughters Beatrice Annie Lee William, the senior first cousin in the Moffett family, still survives and blesses our family reunions with her presence. The idea of a family reunion came out of a strong desire of "Bea" and her second brother Lemmie to bring the generations together in fellowship and love.

Mattie Allen Moffett (Sister Mattie), the second daughter, married Eugene Forest Durr, the son of Frank and Betty Durr. To that union two daughters were born, Georgia Mae and Gregory Casanova. Georgia Mae died at an early age. Gregory C. Durr White still graces the reunions with her attendance.

George Moffett, the second son, married Velma Patton, the daughter of Annis (Mur) Warbington. To this marriage five children were born; four boys and one girl. Annie Bell Moffett Nobles (Little Sister), survives and attends family reunions. Deceased brothers, Ozzie Vell (Little Bud), Roosevelt, Luther (Buster), and Lawrence (Lump) deceased.

Pearlena (Pearl), the third daughter, married Ben Phillips, the son of George and Ann Phillips. Fourteen children were the fruits of this union. Willie Bell (Sister), Eugene Forest (Buddy, Sambo), Christine (Chris), Bennie George (Bennie), Aldine (Al), Creasie Mae (Creasie), Roscoe (Brother), Lucy and Lillie Kate (Lillie), Charles B., Ernie B., and two others. Survivors who are able to attend family reunions are; Bennie George, Aldene Brown, Creasie Mae Johnson, Roscoe, Lucy Tillman, and Evangelist Lillie Kate Brown.

Leona (Lee) the fourth daughter married Jonas Roberts, a son of Iloson and Emma Roberts. This marriage produced thirteen children. There are four survivors to attend family reunions in this family; Mary Elner (Nana) Clark, Carlene (Sister) Fleming, Ethel McNeal; one brother, Horace (Fronaman). Deceased are Hermon (Brother), Ruby Lee, Grace, Chocolit (Lit), Willie Gray, John (Neat), Woodrow (Short), and two infants.

Alen Moffett Jr, the youngest son of Alice and Alen had no known descendants.

Cammie Moffett, son of Alen Moffett Sr. and Jemina Alford had no known descendants.

Adeline Moffett Harfield, the fifth daughter of Alice and Alen and mother of one child, a daughter, Kresses Elverta Young Holloway. Kresses is the writer of this partial family history and the daughter of Roy Lee Young.

Mary Bell (Mable), the youngest daughter, married Arthur Gentle Cochran. To this union five children was born. Three survive and attend family reunions. Alice Fredora (Freda) Woods, Eunisolva (Beauty Cake) Carter, one son, Matthew Aaron (Shinie) Cochran, Annie Jessie (Jay) Henry, and one infant deceased.

Jim Young and Eugene Fred (Fed) Young were first cousins and reared almost as brothers. Fred, (E.F.) Young Sr, a son of Peter and Julia Young, married Maggie Harrison. They were the parents of twelve children. There are two survivors, a son, Dortha B (D.B.), daughter, Ruth (Noonie) Chester. Deceased children are Bishop Roy Lee Young (R.L), Sister Annie L. Smith, Sister Mamie Smith (two sisters who married two brothers); Razzie, Eugene, Fred, Jr (Fred), Thomas (Tommie), Nettie Brewster, Elnora (Lenora, Babe) Elliot, and Oliver.

Reverend E.F. Young's family has contributed much to the welfare of humanity. Only time and history will record the deeds of these families.

This Martin, Moffett, Young family history covers documentation of four generations. The remaining family history is yours to continue. I would, however, like each of you to continue to work toward your own family history.

As much as I want to, I cannot say "thank you" to each individual that has made a difference in my life. I thank God, my ancestry, my immediate family, all relatives, friends, those who made this event happen, and posterity. May God's blessings continue on you, the seeds of Abraham.

Kreses Elverta Holloway
